DEDICATION

We, the students of Planeview High School, dedicate the Talespin to the faculty of our school. It is with sincere appreciation that we acknowledge the instruction, guidance and friendship of our teachers. Through their efforts we shall be better citizens for a united world of tomorrow.

ONE THING LEADS TO ANOTHER

In the morning when you get up late,
Tired from the after affects of a date;
You get to school after the last bell,
Your home room teacher doesn't like it very well.

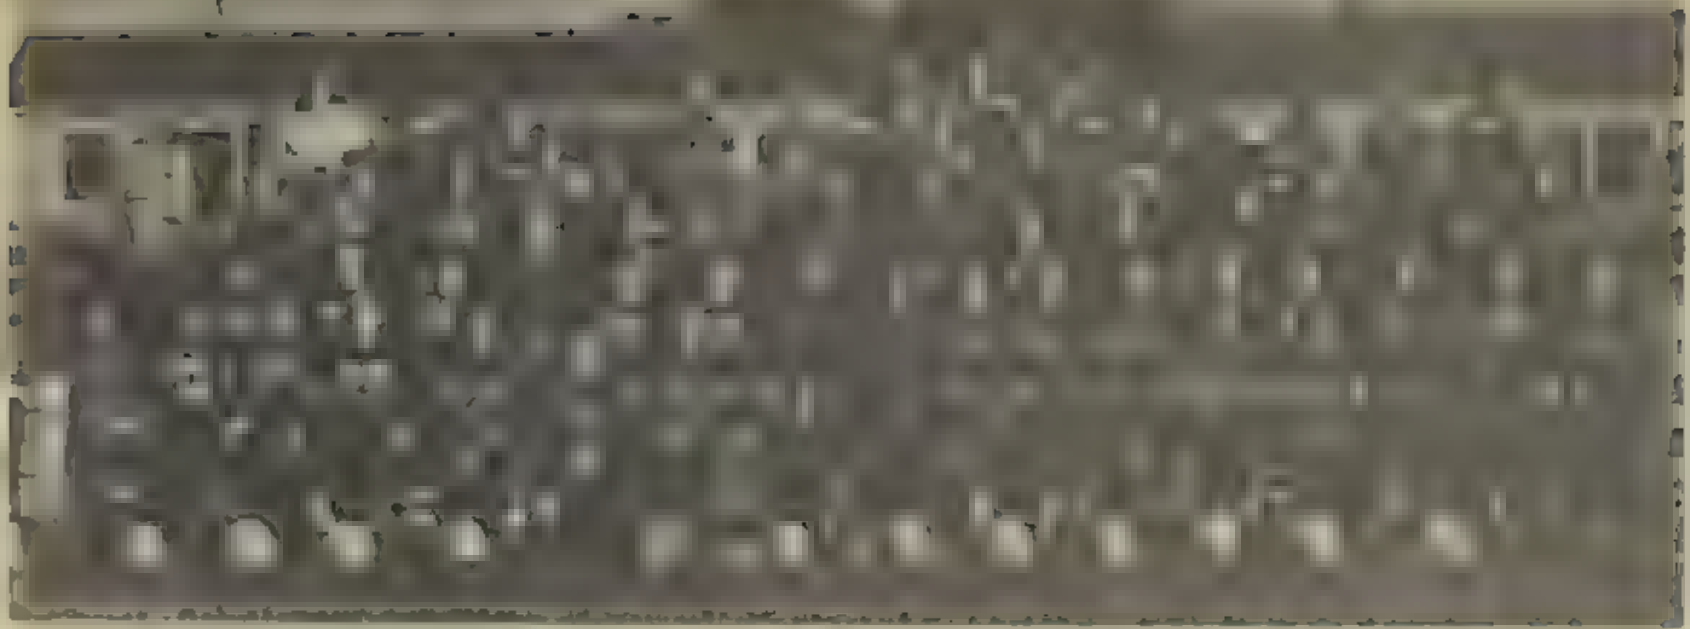

Sends you to the office to get an excuse
And have Mrs. Bedwell tighten the noose.
Whether you're absent or whether you're tardy,
The welcome you get is not very hearty.
Let me tell you something, Brother!
One thing just leads to another.

You go to the office to report,
And Mrs. Bedwell greets you with a snort.
Whether you tell the truth or a lie,
You are certain you won't get by.
While you are talking, she gives you a pass,
Writes conference on your slip, and sends you back to class.
Take my advice and listen, Brother,
One thing just leads to another.

If you don't let it bother you, you're O.K.
Cause you get a conference anyway.
Sixth hour you get a little slip,
And you sure do wish that you could skip.
But you're better off if you make them up right away.
Cause eventually they'll get you anyway.
So stay out of the office, remember, Brother,
One thing just leads to another.

To a sweet friend who was in this hour (constitution)
class the 1950

1950 CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1950, being of unsound mind and body, do will and bequeath as follows:

Steve Allen wills his Kyron Tablets to Alice Buckley in hopes she'll get a slim figure like his.

Mary Alley wills to Sue Ann Caraway her ability to play Cupid, hoping Sue will do better than she did.

Don Ash wills his slow drawl and ability to keep his head in an argument to Joe

Mary Asher wills her ability to get "little" brother Bob in dark rooms and keep him there to Olive Malcom.

Milford Atkins wills his manly physique to James Jackson.

Helen Barney wills her height to Karen Tucker as she doesn't want her to always Hugh Beckham wills to Estel Shaw his ability to make passes in hopes he will be a great basketball star.

He wills his ability to dip snuff without getting sick and his excess weight to Kenny Baker who needs it.

Richard Bethea wills his one and only pair of eccentric shoes to Clarice Brown in hopes that she may use them on rainy days (boats).

Joe Boley wills his ability to make technical fouls without even being in the game to David McReynolds.

Gloria Borgendale wills her boisterousness to Minnie Jo Tarr who is so quiet.

Pauline Bruns wills her ability as a baby sitter to Marilyn Wulf in hopes she doesn't get into as many scrapes as she did.

Betty Cain wills her extreme height to tiny, little Jack Davis.

Norma Chace wills to Sammy Helton a very stately milk bottle in hopes he will not forget an incident of a few years ago.

Pat Chambers wills her ability to get older boys to take piano lessons to Alice

Betty Chapman wills her ability to get married during her senior year to Barbara Dalrymple

Dean Chippeaux wills to Ronald Lank all his secrets on how to pass without Rosella Clayton wills all the used chewing gum that he stuck under the desks in Room 26 to Robert Zang so he can melt it down and use it to hold himself together while laughing at his own jokes.

Barbara and Beverly Collins will their ability to be the only twins in the Senior Class to Barbara and Elizabeth Russell.

Vivian Cunningham wills her ability to be absent from Mrs. Mueller's sixth hour study hall without a guilty conscience to Pat Gragg.

Leon Davis wills his studiousness to Bill Flerry so he will never be kicked off the basketball team for low grades.

Jeanne Eubanks wills her red nose to Rudolph (Eunice Laswell).

Charlie Field wills to Jimmie McKnight his no. 13 football jersey hoping it will bring him luck.

Oliver Flerry wills his exc height to Claudia Brown.

Adolphus Gilkey wills his forward ways to Eli Gilliam

La June Hall wills her clever scheming in getting away with chewing gum and talking in school to her brother, Jimmie, who probably needs it.

Jeanne Harms wills to "Laughing Boy" Jack Tipton her alluring appeal.

Beuna Harwick wills her ability to write love notes and amorous letters to Youvha

Don Herr wills all of his books to Mary Herr.

Mary Hittle wills to Meta Sue Hancock her chemistry lab stool and her ability to understand D. K.'s keen sense of humor on test day.

Bobby Hoover wills his driving to Gene Angel who is endangering the lives of all the pedestrians.

Colleen Hopkins wills her ability to have the messiest locker to Dorothy Flauding.

Truman House wills his football jersey to Mary Bethea who has a better figure

Elma Hudson wills her bottle of peroxide and forward ways to Olive Malcolm who's so bashful and shy.

Clair Hudspeth wills his red suspenders, size 12 feet and his ability to gyp without getting caught to David Brunson.

Bob James wills his Tond Home Permanent Kit and curling iron to Stanley Mead.

Marjorie Keil wills to Deloris Warren her ability to play jokes on Mr. Miller and get by with it.

Virgil Kelly wills his car to Richard Mewhinney, which has a cracked block so the car and Richard will have something in common.

Don Laswell wills his nail in the dressing room to D. Driftwood Davis in hopes he can keep his clothes on it better than Don did.

Johnny Lynch wills to Patsy Frey his ability to fight so she can protect herself from bruises.

Cora McCoskey wills her good attendance to Barbara Carr.

Junior McIntyre wills his ability to drive like a fool and still be happy to Lounelle

Myrna Main wills her ability to wear sweaters well to Margaret Bremholt.

Vernon Pool wills his carefree attitude to Jack Duft, in hopes he will have as much fun as Vernon did.

Gay Muddough wills her chair in American history and her ability to hold her temper at all times to Joe Caraway.

James Monroe wills to Dee Estimer his humanity to the opposite sex.

Warren Morris wills his ability to skip school without being caught to Dick Barter.

Rosie Mounts wills her cowbell to little sis, Arlene.

Charlotte Cave wills her ability to get engaged and not tell anyone to Lela Angel.

Leola Oeller wills her ability to get to school on time even though it's a long way to Iva Dell Sparlin.

Ferry Harris wills her secret of success of getting along with Mrs. Mueller for the past six years without getting sent to the office once to Raymond Le Bray.

Fetty Reichen wills her ability to get into Mr. Webb's study hall on time to Marion McKellips and Willard Hofman.

Dale Leeland wills his ability to get a letter in the morning from the prom to Bob Etheridge.

Virginia Powers wills her ability to get grade cards on time to Olen Beard.

Samuel Brather wills to Nancy Moore her ability to get suspended from school.

Chas. Rothro wills her ability to grow up at an early age to Sue Ann Caraway.

Marion Smith wills to Joe Duft her precious collection of ants in hopes he can stand the risk of being caught.

Joe Duft wills his ability to cram things into lockers to Bob Asher and Carl McReynolds.

Barbara Reeter wills her golden silence to Dorothy Gile in hope she won't let it tarnish.

Frances Reynolds wills her position in the office to Jack Willie pie who spends most of his time there anyway.

Ernie Tracey wills her ability to Lela Angel to help the interest of the boys even though they live outside Planeview.

Ernie Knox wills his athletic and American history ability to Danny Knussell.

Coretha Sexton wills her cheerleading and singing abilities to Shirley Whittaker.

Lroy Shaw wills to Mr. Foxx anybody who can take his place and understand Mr. Foxx like he does.

LeAnn Stelander wills her ability to run and her Mae West figure to Dalbert Knox.

Carol Smith wills her ability to make straight A's in Mr. Mader's class to Allen Ratzliff.

Martha Smith wills her curly hair to Billy Davis who really needs it.

Maxine Smith wills her ability to break up with boys to Thelene Mcracken.

Pat Smith wills all her excess height to Joyce Moore.

Norma Reed wills to Bonnie Math her ability to keep peace in the family and get in early - in the morning.

Elen Strober wills to Ester Shaw her ability to get along with Mr. Mader in hopes that he will be able to make the grade.

Clarence will leave his nickname, "Kunk", to anyone who fits the description.

Donald Ward wills her position as annual editor to any Junior desiring a nervous breakdown.

Willie Washington wills to Jack Tipton his ability as a great artist.

Bob Whatley wills to Charlie Hill his ability of a good talking Mr. Miller into getting out of American History.

Howard White wills his big number "3" and 227 points to Billy Ackerman.

Dear Ballard

It was nice knowing you
the past year. we have had fun in class together
I am sure. You have a nice little brother. Luck and happiness always
